Re: Diamond Alkali Superfund Site
Notice of Potential Liability for Response Actions in the Lower Passaic River, New Jersey

Dear Ms. Reddy:

EPA's notice letter of September 15, 2003 to Antonio Perez, Eastman Kodak Company ("Kodak"), regarding response actions in the Lower Passaic River, New Jersey has been referred to me for reply. To ease future communications in this matter, I write to advise that NPEC Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Kodak, will represent Kodak and all other entities associated with it at the former Thomasset Colors/Sterling facility located at 120 Lister Avenue in Newark, New Jersey ("Site"). NPEC Inc. has the responsibility for managing Kodak's environmental remedial liabilities.

For your information and administrative convenience, to the extent the following entities are potentially liable for environmental contamination at or arising from the Site, they are indemnified by Kodak:

Bayer Corporation
360 North Pastoria Environmental Corporation (name changed to NPEC Inc.)

Future communications in reference to the Lower Passaic River should be addressed to:

Mr. Joseph G. Gabriel, President
NPEC Inc.
3400 Ridge Road West
Suite 5-341
Rochester, NY 14626
